MWR Life Magazine - Fort Campbell April Addition 2017

April is the Month of the Military Child, a 31 year event designed to recognize and show appreciation for the tremendous challenges military children face on a daily basis. For over 3 years the Manadoob Program has been facilitated at various military youth centers around the country and most recently internationally. We are excited and honored to be included in the April, 2017 edition of MWR Life Magazine which includes the cover featuring our Manadoob Secret Connection Game board and characters as well as an article written by

June Salin and Manadoob Training Director Nancy Shannon had the privilege of visiting Fort Hood in Texas, the largest active duty armored post in the United States Armed Forces and one of the largest military bases by area in the world. For more than 5 years, The Manadoob Program has been offered to children through their U.S. Army Child and Youth Services Program at several youth centers on base. Pictured here at CYS Headquarters with June and Nancy are Ashley Hill, YSAC Administrator; Sheila Curtis, Chief CYS; Jacquete Cozart Assist. Director Kouma. May 2019

Manadoob is grateful to the wonderful and inspiring children of Dimona, Israel who are working with the Manadoob Program for Self-Esteem. These children are led by a remarkable young woman who served in the Israeli military and earned two Degrees from Ben Gurion University, Tsfoonah Lawrence Drame. We are proud to support Tsfoonah as she is currently running for an elected office on the City Council of Dimona, as well as Ahmahlyah Elyahsuv, the Communications Director for the community in Dimona who traveled to California to meet with June and Susan to personally show her support for Manadoob.
